

— WCW POETRY SYMPOSIUM OVERVIEW —

COME TO A POETRY SYMPOSIUM TO CELEBRATE THE 125TH BIRTHDAY OF WILLIAM CARLOS WILLIAMS
IN HIS HOMETOWN OF RUTHERFORD, NJ
September 20 and 21, 2008 at the Williams Center, One Williams Plaza (201-939-6969)

What exactly is a “SYMPOSIUM” anyway?

According to Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary, a symposium is:

- a convivial party with music and conversation
- a social gathering at which there is a free exchange of ideas
- a formal meeting at which several specialists deliver short addresses on a topic or on related topics

The September Symposium is all of the above. It is being held...

... to celebrate the life and the 125th birthday of William Carlos William, Rutherford’s most famous citizen — a world-renowned Pulitzer Prize winning poet, who changed the voice of American poetry. To celebrate him with music and conversation, a free interchange of ideas, and presentations by specialists on him.

... to celebrate him here because he lived in Rutherford his entire life — even though he was famous enough to live anywhere — and he practiced medicine here for more than 40 years, making house calls for miles around and delivering more than 3,000 babies, probably to someone you or your parents or grandparents knew.

... to celebrate him here because his poetry was a new language that came from the voices of the people he spoke with every day—his patients, his friends, his neighbors. It is the language of America and is why he is called the father of modern American Poetry.

Scores of family members are coming from around the country for a reunion. Presenters are coming from around the world. So many preeminent people wanted to be a part of the 2008 Symposium it could have been two weeks instead of two days.

Below is an overview of people and events scheduled to help celebrate this great man we refer to as WCW. Many of them have said, “William Carlos Williams changed my life.” We know that after these two days of hearing them explain why, your life will be changed too.

PRESENTERS:

WCW Family Members — Traveling from all over the country, immediate family members will sit on a panel to reminisce about growing up with WCW, Flossie, Edgar, and each other.

Neil Baldwin (author, bio To all Gentleness: William Carlos Williams, The Doctor Poet) — revisits his friend WCW with the reissuing of his 1984 WCW biography.

Dr. Robert Coles (Harvard Professor and Pulitzer Prize winning author of some 50 books, including WCW: The Knack of Survival; and House Calls with William Carlos Williams, MD, with photographer Thomas Roma, and the introduction to WCW's The Doctor Stories) — reminiscences on accompanying WCW on house calls during the 1950s, and how his personal relationship with WCW as poet / physician / artist changed his life. His talk will be accompanied by a photo presentation with Thomas Roma.

Peggy Fox (New Directions Publishing President & Publisher) and Ian MacNiven (Professor Emeritus SUNY Maritime College) — on WCW's publishing company New Directions, its founder James Laughlin, Ezra Pound, WCW, and their turbulent relationships.

Andrew Krivak (ed., Letters of WCW to Edgar Irving Williams, 1902 to 1912) — on the close and competitive relationship of WCW and Edgar Irving Williams as revealed through their letters.

Rod Leith (Borough Historian) — award-winning slide presentation and bus tour of historic WCW Rutherford sites.

Thomas Roma (photographer, House Calls with William Carlos Williams, MD, with Robert Coles) — multi-media presentation with Dr Coles as they revisited the sites of house calls Coles made with WCW in the 1950s

Melissa Sweet (illustrator, A River of Words, children's picture book on WCW with Jen Bryant) — book reading with art presentation on WCW-influenced illustrations
